DRAFT

8 Dear Mr. Reilly:

9 We are responding to your inquiry regarding the status of the Green Party of 10 Connecticut (the “GPC”) as a State party committee of a political party under the Federal 11 Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended (the “Act”), and Commission regulations.
12 The Commission concludes that the GPC qualifies as a State party committee because:
13 (1) the Green Party of the United States (the “GPUS”) qualifies as a political party; 14 (2) the GPC is part of the official GPUS structure; and (3) the GPC is responsible for the 15 day-to-day operations of the GPUS at the State level.

16 Background

17 The facts presented in this advisory opinion are based on your letter received on 18 October 22, 2012 and an email from Budd Dickinson of the GPUS received on 19 October 31, 2012; on information contained on the websites of the GPC 20 (<http://www.ctgreenparty.org/>) and the GPUS (<http://www.gpus.org/index.php>); and on 21 disclosure reports filed with the Commission.

22 The GPC’s Bylaws (“Bylaws”) detail various aspects of the functions, 23 organization, and operation of the GPC. The Bylaws establish a State Central 24 Committee, which is responsible for “formulation of Statements of Purpose and 25 Principles and basic plans for organization, programs, financing, and strategy.” Bylaws, 26 Tit. II, Pt. 1. The State Central Committee is also responsible for “acting on petitions for

1 formation and acceptance of new Chapters and for determining and directing all action
2 required for implementation of established Purposes and Plans.” Id. The State Central 3 Committee is empowered to “establish subordinate committees, expend Party funds, and 4 take or direct all action required for the execution of established Purposes and Plans, and 5 coordinate all joint Chapter activities.” Id.

6         The Bylaws also describe specific responsibilities of the Party Chairpersons, 7 Secretary, and Treasurer. See Bylaws, Tit. II, Pts. 2a-2c. The Bylaws create an 8 Executive Committee, consisting of the three Chairpersons, the Secretary, and the 9 Treasurer. The Executive Committee “shall be responsible for establishing the agenda
10 for State Central Committee Meetings, duly considering recommendations and requests 11 by [the] State Central Committee and chapters, and for informing State Central 12 Committee members and Chapters of the agenda a week in advance of each meeting. It 13 shall monitor the activities of Party committees and Chapters, assuring a full 14 understanding of Party standards and objectives; and shall recommend to the State 15 Central Committee any non-routine action that the State Central Committee should 16 consider.” Bylaws, Tit. II, Pt. 2g.

17         The GPC has several committees including those responsible for finances, bylaws
18 and procedures, platform, membership, data management, and dispute resolution. GPC
19 Procedure Manual, 7-9, http://www.ctgreenparty.org/images/pdf/procedure-book-
20 103011.pdf (last visited Nov. 8, 2012).

21         The GPC placed a candidate for President, Ralph Nader, on the Connecticut
22 general election ballot in 2000. The GPC also succeeded in placing individuals who met

1 the definition of “candidate” pursuant to the Act and Commission regulations on general
2 election ballots for the U.S. House of Representatives, including Charles Pillsbury (3rd
3 District) in 2002 and Ken Kreyeske (1st District) in 2010.

4 The Commission has recognized the GPUS as a “political party” since 2001.

5 See Advisory Opinion 2001-13 (Green Party of the United States). Pursuant to its 6 bylaws, the National Committee of the GPUS is composed of representatives of the State 7 parties apportioned according to a rules document. Bylaws of the Green Party of the 8 United States, Art. II, sec. 2, <http://www.gp.org/documents/bylaws.shtml> (last updated 9 May 9, 2010). The GPC is an active, accredited state party under the GPUS and has 10 apportioned five delegates on the National Committee. Rules and Procedures of the 11 Green Party of the United States, Art VIII, sec. 8-1, 12 <http://www.gp.org/documents/rules.shtml#08> (last updated Dec. 20, 2009); Green Party
13 Committees – Green National Committee (NC), 14 <http://www.gp.org/committees/nc/delegates/> (last visited Nov. 15, 2012). The GPUS also 15 allocated ten delegates to the GPC for the 2012 Presidential nominating convention.

16 Question Presented

17 Does the GPC qualify as a State committee of a political party within the meaning 18 of the Act and Commission regulations?

1 Legal Analysis and Conclusion

2 Yes, the GPC qualifies as a State committee of a political party within the 3 meaning of the Act and Commission regulations.

4 A “State committee” is an organization that, by virtue of the bylaws of a “political 5 party,” is part of the official party structure, and is responsible for the day-to-day
6 operations of the political party at the State level. 2 U.S.C. 431(15); 11 CFR 100.14(a).

7 A “political party” is an “association, committee, or organization that nominates a 8 candidate for election to any Federal office whose name appears on the election ballot as 9 the candidate of such association, committee, or organization.” 2 U.S.C. 431(16); 11 10 CFR 100.15.

11 The determination as to whether a State party organization qualifies as a State 12 committee of a national political party turns on three elements: (1) the national party with 13 which the State party organization is associated must be a “political party”; (2) the State 14 party organization must be part of the official structure of the national party; and (3) the 15 State party organization must be responsible for the day-to-day operations of the national 16 party at the State level. See, e.g., Advisory Opinions 2009-16 (Libertarian Party of 17 Ohio), 2008-16 (Libertarian Party of Colorado), and 2008-13 (Pacific Green Party of 18 Oregon). The Commission addresses each of these three elements in turn.

19 (1) Qualification of GPUS as a Political Party

20 First, the Commission must assess whether the national party qualifies as a 21 “political party” under the Act and Commission regulations. 2 U.S.C. 431(15) and (16); 22 11 CFR 100.14 and 100.15; see Advisory Opinions 2008-16 (Libertarian Party of

1 Colorado), 2008-13 (Pacific Green Party of Oregon), and 2007-06 (Libertarian Party of 2 Indiana). As noted above, the Commission has determined in a previous advisory 3 opinion that the GPUS qualifies as a political party. See Advisory Opinion 2001-13 4 (Green Party of the United States). The Commission is aware of no new facts that would 5 alter that conclusion.

6 (2) Status of GPC as Part of Official GPUS Structure

7 Second, the GPC must qualify as part of the official party structure of the national 8 party, pursuant to 11 CFR 100.14. According to the GPUS's bylaws and rules referenced 9 in the bylaws, the GPC is an active, accredited State party with five delegates on the 10 GPUS's National Committee. The GPUS also allocated ten delegates to the GPC for the 11 2012 Presidential nominating convention. The GPC is thus part of the GPUS's official 12 party structure under the GPUS's bylaws. 11 CFR 100.14. In addition, an officer of the 13 GPUS has confirmed that the GPC is part of the GPUS's official party structure. Email
14 from Budd Dickinson, GPUS Secretary, to Christopher Reilly, GPC Deputy Treasurer
15 (Oct. 31, 2012). See, e.g., Advisory Opinion 2008-16 (Libertarian Party of Colorado);
16 Advisory Opinion 2008-13 (Pacific Green Party of Oregon); Advisory Opinion 2007-06
17 (Libertarian Party of Indiana); Advisory Opinion 2007-02 (Arizona Libertarian Party).

18 (3) Responsibility of GCP for Day-to-Day Operations of GPUS in Connecticut

19 Third, the GPC must maintain responsibility for the day-to-day operations of the 20 GPUS at the State level. 2 U.S.C. 431(15); 11 CFR 100.14. In previous advisory 21 opinions, the Commission has evaluated this third element by considering: (a) whether 22 the organization has placed a "candidate" on the ballot (thereby qualifying as a "political

1 party”); and (b) whether the bylaws or other governing documents of the State party
2 organization indicate activity commensurate with the day-to-day functions and operations
3 of a political party at the State level.<sup>1</sup> See Advisory Opinion 2009-16 (Libertarian Party
4 of Ohio); Advisory Opinion 2008-16 (Libertarian Party of Colorado); Advisory Opinion
5 2008-13 (Pacific Green Party of Oregon).

6 Ballot placement on behalf of a “candidate” is required because the requesting 7 organization’s existence as a “political party” is necessary for State committee status. A 8 State party organization must actually obtain ballot access for one or more “candidates,” 9 as defined in the Act. See 2 U.S.C. 431(2), (15), (16); 11 CFR 100.3(a), 100.14(a), 10 100.15; see also, Advisory Opinion 2009-16 (Libertarian Party of Ohio) and Advisory 11 Opinion 2008-16 (Libertarian Party of Colorado).

12 According to disclosure reports filed with the Commission, Ralph Nader received 13 contributions or made expenditures in excess of $5,000 in the 2000 election cycle. He 14 therefore satisfied the Act’s definition of “candidate.” See 2 U.S.C. 431(2); 11 CFR
15 100.3(a). Mr. Nader’s name appeared on the 2000 Connecticut ballot as the GPUS’s 16 candidate for President. Further, two GCP candidates for the House of Representatives, 17 Charles Pillsbury on the 2002 ballot and Ken Krayske on the 2010 ballot, also received 18 contributions or made expenditures in excess of $5,000 according to disclosure reports 19 filed with the Commission. Accordingly, the GPC qualifies as a “political party” under 20 the Act.

<sup>1</sup> As demonstrated by documents submitted with the request, under Connecticut State law, the GPC has qualified as a “political party.”

1           As discussed above, the Bylaws establish the organizational structure of the GPC
2 and detail specific responsibilities of party officers. The Bylaws spell out activity
3 commensurate with the day-to-day functions and operations of a political party on a State
4 level. For example, the Bylaws establish a State Central Committee and an Executive 5 Committee, which together are responsible for the day-to-day administrative functions of 6 the GPC. The GPC has also created several committees charged with functions, such as 7 finances, bylaws and procedures, platform, and membership.

8           The Bylaws are consistent with the State party rules reviewed in previous 9 situations where the Commission has recognized the State committee status of a political 10 organization. See, e.g., Advisory Opinion 2008-16 (Libertarian Party of Colorado)
11 (finding that the Constitution and Bylaws of the Libertarian Party of Colorado 12 sufficiently established the performance of day-to-day operations because the documents 13 articulated a clear purpose, operating structure, and duties for officers). Therefore, the 14 Bylaws satisfy the requirements of 2 U.S.C. 431(15) and 11 CFR 100.14(a).

15           Accordingly, because all three elements of the definition of “State committee” are 16 satisfied, the Commission determines that the GPC qualifies as a State committee of a 17 political party under the Act and Commission regulations.

18           This response constitutes an advisory opinion concerning the application of the 19 Act and Commission regulations to the specific transaction or activity set forth in your 20 request. See 2 U.S.C. 437f. The Commission emphasizes that, if there is a change in any 21 of the facts or assumptions presented, and such facts or assumptions are material to a
