WASHINGTON—A nationwide search has been undertaken by the Federal Election Commission for applicants to its top administrative position, Staff Director.

The vacancy has resulted from the resignation of Staff Director B. Allen Clutter III, effective May 15. Mr. Clutter has accepted a position in private business in Cleveland, Ohio.

The Staff Director of the FEC is a statutory position at the Executive IV level, reporting to and serving at the pleasure of the Presidentially-appointed six member Commission. As chief operating officer of the agency, which administers and enforces campaign finance provisions of the Federal Election Campaign Act, the Staff Director manages and directs budget and financial operations, administration, personnel/labor relations, equal employment opportunities, congressional/legislative liaison and automated data processing operations.

Chairman Danny L. McDonald and Commissioner Frank P. Reiche have been named as a task force to seek out applicants. Those interested are invited to submit a resume, preferably accompanied by a Standard Form 171, by May 23, 1983, addressed to: ATTN: Staff Director Selection Task Force, Danny L. McDonald, Chairman, Federal Election Commission, 1325 K Street, N.W., Washington, D.C., 20463.
