FEC RELEASES THREE INVESTIGATIVE FILES

WASHINGTON -- The Federal Election Commission has made public its final action on three matters it has had under review (MURs). This release contains only summary information. Closed files should be thoroughly read for details, including the FEC's legal analysis of the MUR. Please see footnote at the end of this release. Summary files of the closed cases are available in the Office of Public Records. They are as follows:

MUR NO.

1. 2701

RESPONDENTS: (a) Iowa Democratic Party, Charles A. Hanson, treasurer (IA);
(b) Dukakis/Bentsen Committee, Inc., Robert A. Farmer, treasurer (DC)
COMPLAINANT: Michael W. Mahaffey (IA)
SUBJECT: Impermissible expenditures; disclaimer
DISPOSITION: (a) Conciliation agreement: $500 civil penalty*
(b) No reason to believe*

2. 2854

RESPONDENTS: National Federation of Federal Employees Public Affairs Council, Julius L. Hall, treasurer (DC)
COMPLAINANT: FEC Initiated
SUBJECT: Failure to file disclosure reports timely
DISPOSITION: Conciliation agreement: $1,000 civil penalty*

3. 2902

RESPONDENTS: U.S. Representative Jim Slattery (KS)
COMPLAINANT: Fred J. Logan, Jr., State Chairman, Kansas Republican Party (KS)
SUBJECT: Failure to file Statement of Candidacy timely
DISPOSITION: Conciliation agreement: $300 civil penalty*

*Following a complaint, the FEC may make a "reason to believe" finding which may trigger an investigation. Subsequently, the FEC may find "probable cause to believe" violation(s) occurred. An affirmative vote of at least four Commissioners is required for any action. At this stage the conciliation process could begin. If conciliation fails the FEC may institute a civil action for relief. The Commission may close a case at any point. For a complete explanation of the enforcement process - contact the FEC Press Office.
