CAMPAIGN FINANCE STUDIES TO BE AVAILABLE AT FEC

WASHINGTON -- On Friday, October 30, 1992, the Federal Election Commission will release the last congressional campaign finance study before the general election. This report will include "Top 50" rankings for candidates as well as details on every U.S. Senate and House race throughout the country.

Additionally, the FEC plans to make available on Wednesday, October 28, 1992, a release detailing the latest campaign finances of the national party committees (RNC, DNC, etc). This report will include data on "soft money" activities.
