STATE ELECTION BOARD EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR WILKEY NAMED TO NATIONAL ELECTION ADVISORY PANEL

WASHINGTON -- New York State Election Board Executive Director Thomas Wilkey has been named to the Advisory Panel of the National Clearinghouse on Election Administration.

The National Clearinghouse is an arm of the Federal Election Commission and the Advisory Panel is composed of 20 state and local election officials from throughout the country. The Panel advises the Clearinghouse on how best to allocate its resources in order to serve the needs of election officials. It meets annually in selected cities throughout the nation.

Mr. Wilkey was named Executive Director of the State Board after 24 years of election administration experience. Prior to his selection, he served as Director of Election Operations and Public Information Officer for the State Board. He served as a member of the Federal Election Commission's Voting Systems Standards Committee and was a founder of the National Association of State Election Directors.

He will attend the Advisory Panel's annual meeting March 24-26 in Savannah, Ga.
