WASHINGTON D.C. SETTING FOR FEC CAMPAIGN FINANCE SEMINAR

WASHINGTON -- The Federal Election Commission will host a one and one-half day campaign finance seminar at the Washington Hilton and Towers in Washington D.C. December 13 and 14.

Topics to be covered will be of interest to corporate and labor PAC's, and will assist them as they prepare for the upcoming 1994 elections. Conference workshops will be conducted by FEC Commissioners and agency specialists and will include areas of the election law which raise the most questions within the regulated community

Note to editors and correspondents:

Reporters interested in attending any of the workshops should contact the FEC Press Office in advance.
