HARRIS COUNTY SUPERVISOR OF ELECTIONS NAMED TO NATIONAL ELECTION ADVISORY PANEL

WASHINGTON -- Harris County Supervisor of Elections Tony J. Sirvello III has been selected to serve on the Advisory Panel of the National Clearinghouse on Election Administration.

The National Clearinghouse is an entity of the Federal Election Commission and the Advisory Panel is composed of 20 state and local election officials from throughout the nation. The Panel advises the Clearinghouse on methods of allocation of resources that will best serve the needs of election officials.

The Advisory Panel meets annually in selected cities. Mr. Sirvello is scheduled to participate in the 1994 session in Tucson, Ariz., June 19-21. More than 150 state and local election officials are expected to attend the Advisory Panel's meeting.

Mr. Sirvello began his career in election administration in 1973 as Harris County's Assistant Supervisor of Elections, following graduation from the University of Houston's Bates College of Law. He was appointed Supervisor of Elections in October 1980 and has held that position through three changes in administration.
