SUBJECT; Naturalized Citizen Candidate For US President

The Federal Election Commission decision to even consider this ridiculous issue has my head thumping.....what is the point of involving a naturalized citizen as a presidential candidate when he can't become president?

To think the FEC is considering giving this illegitimate candidate tax payer funds to run a campaign when he's not eligible to fill the office? And we wonder why the US government is in debt up to our ears?

Is there any common-sense left in American government anywhere? And I spent life-threatening time in the fox-hole defending this craziness

God have mercy.....

Subject: "Naturalized Citizen" Abdul Hassan Candidate For US President?

The Federal Election Commission decision to even consider this ridiculous issue has my head thumping.....what is the point of involving Mr. Hassan, a naturalized citizen as a president candidate, when the US Constitution calls for a "natural born citizen", to become president?

To think the FEC is considering giving this illegitimate candidate tax payer funds to run a campaign when he's not eligible in accordance with Article 2, Section 1 of the US Constitution, to fill the office is mind boggling? And we wonder why the US government is in debt up to our ears?

Is there any common-sense left in American government anywhere? And I spent life-threatening time in the fox-hole defending this craziness

God have mercy.
