Dear Ms. Rodriguez-Baz:

At the Commission's open meeting of September 15, 2022, Mr. Backer said that Ready for Ron would consent to an extension of its advisory opinion request. Can you please confirm that Ready for Ron consents to a 14-day extension, with a new deadline of October 5, 2022, for the Commission to respond to Ready for Ron's request? The Commission's next open meeting is scheduled for Thursday, September 29.

Because the current deadline for the Commission's response is today, please respond as soon as possible. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Heather Filemyr
