3	make political contributions with funds from another or with foreign funds.

- 12. In or about May 3, 1996, Il Sung Construction wired $200,000 to CK&A, which at that time had less than $100,000 in its account. On May 6, 1996, the funds were deposited into the account of CK&A.
- 7 13. On May 6, 1996, a $150,000 check was written on CK&A's account to Sumitomo Bank 8 to pay for a $150,000 cashier's check to the DNC.
- 9 14. Respondent, along with Kim and two foreign nationals who were Il Sung Construction 10 executives, attended a DNC fundraiser on May 3, 1996 at the Washington Convention Center.
- 15. After the fundraiser, Respondent gave the $150,000 cashier's check to DNC officials.

 However, because Kim wanted the contribution to come from the account of K&L instead of CK&A, he gave Respondent instructions to tall the DNC not to deposit the check.

- 16. On May 11, 1996 Kim wrote a $150,000 check to the DNC on the account of K&L.

 The DNC, upon receiving the K&L check, returned the $150,000 cashier's check to Respondent, who returned it to Kim.
- 17. After the DNC deposited the K&L check, it was returned for insufficient funds.

 18 Respondent so informed Kim. Kim, using the funds from the cashier's check returned by the DNC,

 19 purchased a $150,000 cashier's check on behalf of CK&A made out to K&L and deposited that check

 20 into K&L's account.
- 21 18. Respondent knew that the funds for the $150,000 donation to the DNC were derived 22 from Il Sung Construction, a foreign corporation.

- VII. The Commission would ordinarily seck a civil penalty equal to 200% of the amount in violation for a knowing and willful violation, for a total of $300,000, but the Commission has agreed to accept a $250 civil penalty for the following reasons:
- 1. On April 6, 1999, Respondent pled guilty in the U.S. District Court for the Central District of California to one misdemeanor count of knowingly and willfully aiding and abetting the making of a contribution to the DNC in violation of 2 U.S.C. § 441e(2).

 Respondent was sentenced to three years probation, 250 hours of community service, and assessed a $25 penalty.

 - 2. As a representation material to the Commission's agreement to substantially reduce the level of civil penalty that the Commission would ordinarily accept for this type of activity, by signing this agreement Respondent represents that he has no assets or income out of which he could pay a significant monetary penalty, and that he has undisputed debts totaling almost $850,000, including owed to the Internal Revenue Service and in taxes owed to the state of California.

 VIII. The Commission, on request of anyone filing a complaint under 2 U.S.C.
 - § 437g(a)(1) concerning the matters at issue herein or on its own motion, may review compliance with this agreement. If the Commission believes that this agreement or any requirement thereof has been violated, it may institute a civil action for relief in the United States District Court for the District of Columbia.
