Re: MUR 5784

Dear Ms. Sands:

As counsel for Morton Grove Pharmaceuticals, Inc. ("Morton Grove") and its President, Chief Executive Officer, and Chairman of the Board, Mr. Brian A. Tambi, I am writing in response to a letter from Federal Election Commission ("Commission") Chairman Michael E. Toner, dated August 15, 2006.

My clients and I have reviewed the Factual and Legal Analysis prepared by the Commission. Morton Grove and Mr. Tambi do not desire to submit any additional materials in response to the Commission's findings. We do request that our original December 28, 2005, sua sponte complaint serve as our response to the Commission's Reason to Believe findings.

As we have noted previously, Morton Grove and Mr. Tambi are committed to conducting all of Morton Grove's business in a lawful and ethical manner. We look forward to continuing to

Sincerely,

Wesley D. Hizzell, Esq.

Counsel to Mr. Brian A. Tambi and Morton Grove Pharmaceuticals
