RE: MUR 7280

Dear Ms. Flynn:

This is in reference to the complaint you filed with the Federal Election Commission on September 26, 2017, concerning possible violations of the Federal Campaign Act of 1971, as amended (the "Act"), by an unknown person. Based on that complaint, on June 4, 2019, the Commission found that there was reason to believe an unknown respondent violated 52 U.S.C. § 30104(b)(4)(H)(iii) or (c) and 52 U.S.C. § 30120(a), provisions of the Act, and instituted an investigation of this matter. However, after considering the circumstances of this matter, the Commission determined to take no further action and closed the file in this matter on April 28, 2022.

Documents related to the case will be placed on the public record within 30 days. See Disclosure of Certain Documents in Enforcement and Other Matters, 81 Fed. Reg. 50,702 (Aug. 2, 2016).

The Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended, allows a complainant to seek judicial review of the Commission's dismissal of this action. See 52 U.S.C. § 30109(a)(8). If you have any questions, please contact me at (202) 694-1650.

Sincerely,

Amanda Andrade
