RE: MUR 7752
Johnny Teague for Congress
Campaign Committee, et al.

Dear Ms. Haddock:

This is in reference to the Complaint you filed with the Federal Election Commission on June 22, 2020, concerning the Johnny Teague for Congress Campaign Committee and James Poullard in his official capacity as treasurer (the “Committee”), the Church at the Cross (the “Church”), and Dr. Johnny Mark Teague (collectively “Respondents”). The Complaint was considered along with a separate complaint filed in MUR 7724. Upon review of the allegations in the complaints and information provided by Respondents, on May 31, 2023, the Commission determined to dismiss as a matter of prosecutorial discretion the allegations that the Church made, and Teague and the Committee knowingly accepted, in-kind corporate contributions in violation of 52 U.S.C. § 30118 and 11 C.F.R. § 114.2 in connection with the television ad that aired from February through March 2020 and the use of the Church address and facilities and that the Committee failed to report receipt of in-kind contributions in violation of 52 U.S.C. § 30104(b) and 11 C.F.R. § 104.3(a) in connection with the television ad and the use of the Church address and facilities. In addition, the Commission determined to dismiss as a matter of prosecutorial discretion the allegations that the Church violated 52 U.S.C. § 30120 and 11 C.F.R. § 110.11 by failing to include a disclaimer on the television ad and 52 U.S.C. § 30104(f) and 11 C.F.R. 104.20 by failing to disclose information about its electioneering communication to the Commission.

The Commission also found that there is no reason to believe that the Church made, and Teague and the Committee knowingly accepted, an in-kind corporate contribution in violation of 52 U.S.C. § 30118 and 11 C.F.R. § 114.2 in connection with the Church’s Facebook posts; that the Committee failed to report receipt of an in-kind contribution in violation of 52 U.S.C. § 30104(b) and 11 C.F.R. § 104.3 in connection with the Church’s Facebook posts; and that the Church violated 52 U.S.C. § 30120 and 11 C.F.R. § 110.11 by failing to include a disclaimer on
