RE: MUR 7964
White Coat Waste PAC, et al.

Dear Ms. Kuppersmith:

This is in reference to the complaint you filed with the Federal Election Commission on February 24, 2022, concerning White Coat Waste PAC and Janna Rutland in her official capacity as treasurer (the "Committee"), White Coat Waste Project, Inc., Anthony Bellotti, and Justin Goodman.

Upon further review of the allegations contained in the complaint and the information supplied by the respondents, the Commission, on June 22, 2023, voted to (1) find no reason to believe that the Committee violated 52 U.S.C. § 30103(b)(2) by failing to include the name, address, relationship, and type of its connected organization in its statement of organization; (2) find no reason to believe that the Committee violated 52 U.S.C. § 30102(e)(5) and 11 C.F.R. § 102.14(c) by failing to include in its name the full name of its connected organization, White Coat Waste Project, Inc.; (3) find no reason to believe that White Coat Waste PAC and Janna Rutland in her official capacity as treasurer violated 52 U.S.C. § 30118(b)(4)(A)(i) and 11 C.F.R. § 114.5(g)(1) by soliciting contributions from persons of outside of its connected organization's restricted class; and (4) dismiss as a matter of prosecutorial discretion allegations that White Coat Waste Project, Inc., made and the Committee accepted prohibited inkind corporate contributions in violation of 52 U.S.C. § 30118(a). Accordingly, the Commission closed the file in this matter.

Documents related to the case will be placed on the public record within 30 days. See Disclosure of Certain Documents in Enforcement and Other Matters, 81 Fed. Reg. 50,702 (Aug. 2, 2016), effective September 1, 2016. A Statement of Reasons providing a basis for the Commission's decision will follow.

The Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended, allows a complainant to seek judicial review of the Commission's dismissal of this action. See 52 U.S.C. § 30109(a)(8).
