Good morning,
Our office mailed out a supplement back in May, however, it was emailed to the wrong attorney and magapac@redcurve.com. We are considering this the first notification of the supplement. Let me know whether or not you intend to submit a response. Apologies for any inconvenience.

Thanks and have a great week!

RE: MUR 8090 Supplement
Donald J. Trump

Dear Messrs. Ross and Gast:

On November 21, 2022, your client was notified that the Federal Election Commission received a complaint alleging violations of certain sections of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended (the "Act"). At that time, your clients were given a copy of the complaint and informed that a response to the complaint should be submitted within 15 days of the receipt of the notification.

On May 17, 2023, the Commission received additional information from the complainant pertaining to the allegations in the complaint. Enclosed is a copy of this additional information.

Any correspondence sent to the Commission, such as a response, must be addressed to one of the following (note, if submitting via email this Office will provide an electronic receipt by email):

Mail

As indicated in the FEC's Notice found at <https://www.fec.gov/legal-resources/enforcement/complaints-process/how-to-file-complaint-with-fec/>, the FEC has largely resumed normal mail operations, but please be advised that processing paper correspondence may be delayed. Accordingly, we strongly encourage you to file correspondence via email, except amendments to your complaint, which should be filed by paper even if email correspondence is used.

Sincerely,

Wanda D. Brown
