Mr. Keeys,

Thanks for your email and call. These are the first communications we have received in response to our February 28 request for an extension, my March 14 follow-up email below, or my March 24 follow-up call message left on your voicemail. Thus, we are just learning that an extension was granted, and that it has lapsed.

In your voicemail just now, I believe you said that we can still submit a response by midweek next week without any further action on the Commission's part being necessary. If I misunderstood what you said, please clarify. We have drafted a response and need only to have our client Mr. Crosby execute a draft affidavit to include with it. We will confirm with Mr. Crosby that he can execute the affidavit promptly and return it to us so that we can make our submission by midweek.

Thank you.
